Budd Van Lines Receives ‘Voice of Customer’ Award at Cartus 2007 Global Network Conference

(Somerset, NJ, October 22, 2007) – Budd Van Lines company was recently honored for outstanding performance by Cartus at its 2007 Global Network Conference held October 22-23 Denver. Each year, Cartus recognizes the companies and individuals that have worked to provide extraordinary service to its international customers and clients.

Budd Van Lines was awarded the Global Network Voice of Customer Award. This award recognizes International and US Domestic Moving Services and Destination service providers who consistently demonstrate the highest service performance to client specific transferring employees.

“Service providers such as Budd Van Lines continuously go the extra mile in their efforts, while demonstrating unrivaled dedication and performance,” said Traci Morris, senior vice president of supply chain management. “As a vital extension of the Cartus team, we rely heavily on the support of our Global Network providers to help minimize the tension that our clients and their employees deal with when faced with such an important life decision as relocating. This award acknowledges the quality and professionalism that we have come to value from our service providers.”

“Taking into account the program’s tough selection criteria and performance standards, being a part of Cartus’ global network is an honor in and of itself,” David Budd Sr., President of Budd Van Lines. “We embody the company’s dedication to providing high-quality service and are grateful to have received this prestigious designation as it only further enhances our commitment to world-class service.”
