Budd Van Lines Receives “Voice of Customer” Client Performance Award at Cartus 2009 Global Network Conference

(Somerset, New Jersey, October 19, 2009) – Budd Van Lines was recently honored for outstanding client specific performance by Cartus at its 2009 Global Network Conference held October 5-6 in Chicago, IL. The Cartus Global Network is Cartus’ industry-leading worldwide service provider network. Each year, Cartus recognizes the companies and individuals in the Network who have provided extraordinary service to its customers and clients worldwide.

Budd Van Lines was named winner of the Global Network Voice of Customer Client Award. This award recognizes international and U.S. domestic moving services and destination services providers who consistently demonstrate the highest service performance to client-specific transferring employees.

“Our Global Network providers operate as indispensable extensions of the Cartus team. They help minimize the stress that our customers feel when they are faced with the life-altering decision to relocate,” said Traci Morris, executive vice president, global operations and supply chain management at Cartus. “Service providers such as Budd Van Lines routinely go the extra mile for our customers and our company while simultaneously performing at the highest levels of achievement. This award acknowledges the unparalleled quality and professionalism that we have come to value from our service providers.”

The commitment to our customers is an ongoing effort. Budd Van Lines recognizes that we must continually evaluate both strengths and weaknesses so we can build upon the level of service delivered to our customers. Our commitment to outstanding service is a philosophy that extends to our customers, office staff and drivers and is inspired by our mission to be “The Best Moving Company in America.”
